II. Activity Summary:

The resource person spoke on the nuances of entrepreneurship and the challenges involved in start-ups. She discussed the different ways of making business plan to encourage students to initiate their own business plans. She also discussed the importance of market survey to identify requirements and the Uniqueness of a particular region. It is always important to look into the potential of a particular state and go for need-based items. She encouraged the students to start thinking out of the box right from college days where they can utilise college laboratories and get mentorship from teachers. Her lecture ended with a fruitful Q&A session.
