

Skill Training for Local women

Date:12 March, 2025

Time:1: 00 Pm

Place : Home Science Laboratory

No. of Participants: 13

Local women from the nearby community were invited to participate and learn new skills. A total of 13 women attended the training session.

The training was conducted by the VI Semester Home Science students and focused on the preparation of three simple and locally available recipes, which included:

1. Brinjal Pickle
2. Iskut Pudding
3. Ginger Juice

The selected recipes were seasonal, easy to prepare, and made from ingredients readily available in the local area. The participants actively engaged in the training, showing great enthusiasm and interest throughout the session. The event concluded in a warm and friendly atmosphere.
